

Muslims are African Americans. These are not black Muslim followers of Louis Farrakhan, but orthodox Sunni Muslims, accepted as such by their brethren from traditionally Muslim societies.

This is not to say that there have not been and do continue to be important ties between this between African and immigrant origin Muslims.